

Stephen & Jennifer Ney

Location: Freetown, SIERRA LEONE

Ministry: Christian academics redemptively influencing people in universities worldwide (Stephen)

Embodying God's love and compassion in support of those who are marginalized (Jennifer)

Sending Agency: Global Scholars Canada (Stephen) / Word Made Flesh (Jennifer)

Global Scholars believes university graduates are destined to be cultural leaders in their home countries; thus, they encourage and foster quality Christian leadership in the universities of the world. Global Scholars supports Stephen Ney to teach PhD students part-time. He is also seconded to IFES and works as the training coordinator for a big project in Africa and Latin America, the Logos and Cosmos Initiative. It aims to help Christian scientists fit their faith and their science together in order to influence their campuses and societies redemptively.

Word Made Flesh is focused on serving Jesus among the most vulnerable of the world's poor. They do this by giving priority to relationships, and by advocating, donating, and growing in community with the most marginalized so that they can experience transformation together. Jennifer's involvements include leading educational, livelihood and discipleship programs for youth and prostituted women from a local slum community.

Email: evenstay@gmail.com (Stephen) jseo99@gmail.com (Jennifer)